Campus Happenings

Book Signing with Lucy Gould '24

We are pleased to share that Lucy Gould, a junior at Arlington Catholic, has recently published her first book titled, Tales of Neverland: The Rescue. The book is a creator meets creation fantasy Peter Pan retelling set in Victorian England. Last Friday, Lucy held a book signing with students and staff at AC.

In an interview with Lucy, she explained that she has always loved writing and that the idea for this book began at age 12. The actual book was written when Lucy was 15. She hopes to major in Creative Writing when she attends college. We are proud of Lucy and wish her well!

If you wish to purchase a copy of the book, please CLICK HERE to visit Lucy's official website.

Climate Club

Environmental studies, video production, and/or just generally interested alumni are invited to visit the ACHS Climate Club as an advisor for one hour or more, anytime in the near future, or as a guest speaker. The students are planning to make an informational video about having a green Christmas.

Please contact JoAnn Passeri via email at jpasseri@achs.net if you are interested. Thank you!

Reunions

50th Celebration: Class of 1972

On September 18, the ACHS Class of 1972 celebrated its 50th Reunion at Menotomy Grill. The day started with Mass at St. Agnes Church where our former classmate, Reverend John Brown, concelebrated Mass (pictured below). Following Mass, Sr. Barbara invited alumni to tour the school, which was truly enjoyed by all! Constant smiles, laughter, reminiscing, catching up and reconnecting filled the day! Looking forward to seeing even more classmates at the next reunion, which will be much sooner than 5 or 50 years!

To mark our 50th Reunion, and, to honor our deceased classmates, donations to two wonderful causes were held with overwhelmingly generous support from '72 classmates.

ACHS Class of 1972 Scholarship Fund
ACHS Class of 1972 Fidelity House Donation

The Class of 1972 is so pleased and grateful to have raised to date more than $23,000 combined for both funds. Both fund drives are ongoing until June 2023.
